Prayer Point

Please pray for all our friends that are unwell at this time. Pray for the Lord's blessing upon them and that they will be restored to health quickly

North Korea

Once again tension is growing between North Korea and the USA. Please pray for dialogue between the two nations to be re-established and a peaceful solution reached to the problem

Giggle Family

Please continue to pray for Chris & Sue Giggle who have recently lost their son Stephen after a long illness. Stephen was involved in a motorcycle accident several years ago as a result of which he was paralysed.

The Giggles live next door to the Chapel & have helped us with many housekeeping jobs over the years.

Use words befitting a Christian

‘The lips of the righteous know what is fitting.’

Proverbs 10:32

When George H. W. Bush was running for president of the United States in 1988, he admitted he'd made an inappropriate remark about American journalist Dan Rather and White House correspondent Lesley Stahl after an on-air confrontation. Bush referred to Rather in an unprintable term, and also took God's name in vain in speaking about the Columbia Broadcasting System. When confronted, he said, 'If I'd known the microphone was on I wouldn't have taken the Lord's name in vain, and I apologise for that.' The fact is, he shouldn't have said it whether the tape was running or not. Remember, God's tape is always running! The Bible says, 'A man's ways are in full view of the LORD, and he examines all his paths' (Proverbs 5:21 NIV 1984 Edition). Centuries ago Jesus declared: 'There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known. What you have said in the dark will be heard in the daylight, and what you have whispered in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed from the roofs' (Luke 12:2-3 NIV 2011 Edition). Take a moment and consider these two Scriptures: 'The heart of the righteous weighs its answers, but the mouth of the wicked gushes evil' (Proverbs 15:28 NIV 2011 Edition). 'The lips of the righteous know what is fitting, but the mouth of the wicked only what is perverse' (Proverbs 10:32 NIV 1984 Edition). The first Scripture tells you that a wise person will think before he or she speaks, because they realise every word has a consequence. The second Scripture tells you that a righteous person automatically knows what's acceptable, and keeps in mind the fact that God hears every word.

News from the Prayer, Praise and Bible Study Group. (April Notes)

It is always good to have Paul Bridle with us to lead our Bible studies. Paul was with us for three weeks, and in the first week he hoped that we could look together at Psalm 62.

First we read through the Psalm, reading several verses each. It was hoped that we would be able to discuss a verse that we could share with one another. After a brief time of prayer and contemplation we shared the things that we special to us.

We seemed to centre on verses 5-, a time of discussion was spent on these verses, leaving no time to delve deeper into the chapter.

Before we turned to prayer, Paul said that for the next two weeks we would be ;looking at Christ's prayer to His heavenly Father in John Chapter 17.

So, on the second week we read the chapter together, and then had a brief prayer and a quiet time to collect our thoughts, we considered the prayer as a whole.

Paul drew our attention to the fact that:

We are listening in on an intimate conversation between God the Son and God the Father,

A conversation intended to be heard by the hearers and later by us, the readers.

A prayer of the deepest of relationships

A prayer reviewing the Lord's :

- a) Past with the Father
- b) His present with the disciples
- c) His purpose for the future
- 5) A prayer of conclusion of His ministry – a very different sort of mission accomplished!

For the last week we had homework looking at the themes Paul had suggested on our worksheet. The themes were:

Glory

Giving

Eternal life

Sent

The world

Looking at the chapter we noticed how many times these words occur. Again we read the chapter, reading round between us, and then started to consider 'Glory'. The Glory of God, the Glories of heaven. After spending some time on this one theme, Paul asked a question:-

"When we meet the Lord, and stand to give an account of our sins before God. Will all be made public before others?"

There was much debate and discussion following. Yet we concluded that God said "He would remember our sins no more". Micah 7 v19 K.J.V.

After answering Paul's question, there was no more time before we turned to prayer, but it did remind us of a chorus we used to sing:

Gone, gone, gone, gone, yes my sins are gone

Buried in the deepest sea

Yes that's good enough for me

I shall live eternally

Praise God my sins are gone.

It was nice to have Paul back with us; we look forward to having him again.

Porch redecoration

The members of Renhold Chapel will be replacing the inner front door with a glazed door opening inwards. This will improve access to the building & avoid the two sets of doors clashing with each other.

At the same time we will be redecorating the porch area to make it more welcoming. It is estimated that the works will cost around £4000 including redecoration & changes to the electrics.

If you are able to donate towards the cost of this work, please place your donation in an envelope marked 'Porch' into the box at the back of the chapel. If you would like to Gift Aid your donation, the chapel can reclaim the tax you have payed on that income & will increase your donation by 20% at no additional cost to you. Gift Aid forms are also at the back at the chapel
